

Hori-san received a Student Best Presentation Award

Hori-san got an honor of Student Best Presentation Award at the Second International Symposium on Frontiers in THz Technology, Shizuoka, Japan (This symposium is held every three years.) as. It is a congratulatory news and we expect all our members bring such good news, because higher presentation abilities are required at interviews when you get jobs.

