President's Welcome Party for International Students

On June 23rd, our President Yamagiwa held the welcome party for international students at the clock tower. He asked all students "How many languages do you talk?" Since we have the recent internationalized situation in all over the world, we need to speak not a few but several languages for future international collaboration. I wish you learn not only English and your mother language but try to communicate in third or fourth language.

