

“Kyoto University Day” at Zhejiang University

“Kyoto University day” is held at Zhejiang University on Oct.30 and 31. Zhejiang University is one of the most important universities and positions on the 3rd rank in China (1st rank in Universities including colleges of agriculture, in China). Our dean, vice dean, Prof. Kondo, and an officer in charge of collaboration research affairs are visiting them and present our activities and education systems. A Ph.D candidate student of the university is coming to our laboratory in January, 2010. It is expected that students of our laboratory are communicate with foreign students and exchange activities in English.